Fabrangen was founded in 1971.
We are interwoven into the larger Jewish community of the Washington area, but small enough that you will feel connected and appreciated.

We are a havurah, a fellowship that is led by its members, not by one rabbi (although we have members who are rabbis).

Our services are full of vitality and depth because Fabrangen members are engaged leaders and participants.

Don't let concerns about your knowledge of Hebrew, level of Jewish observance, or dress prevent you from joining us.

We welcome you as you are.

We deeply live our Judaism.

The ties that bind us:

- Commitment to learning and prayer
- Extraordinary lay leadership by women and men
- Sharing and support through joys and sorrows
- Creative mix of innovative and traditional worship
 - Dedication to social justice through “tikkun olam” (repairing the world)
- Community decision making
- Acceptance of the many paths one may take in a Jewish life
