

7750 16th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 200 12
Phone: (202) 595-9138
Email: fabrangen@yahoo.com
Website www.fabrangen.org

Yizkor Memorial Booklet

Yom Kippur 2014/5775

*In honor of loved family
and friends who died
within the past year*

In Memory of . . .

Aileen F. Arnson

November 6, 2013

At age 89 my Mom got her first computer--a Mother's Day gift from the four of us kids. She mostly wanted to be able to see all the photos of the grandkids being shared digitally. I so admire her zest for learning new things. I will always treasure the first email she sent me; the whole message was written in the subject line!

Cindy Arnson

Dr. Herschel Bornstein

May, 2014

During World War II, my Uncle Hersch served in the U.S. Navy Medical Corps. He received his medical degree from Indiana University, and served with the US Public Health Service. He returned to Gary, Indiana, where he practiced family medicine for more than 30 years, raised a family with my Aunt Ruth, and was politically active.

Bracha Laster

Fountain W. Clarke

April 4, 2014

Mr. Clarke, (b. Jan.5, 1913), was clear-minded through his last day. At dinner he remembered life as an African American in the South, in military service and later, frequently quoting Ecclesiastes: "Remember your Creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble come and the years approach when you will say, "I find no pleasure in them."

Rose Sue Berstein

In Memory of . . .

Stanley T. "Ted" Siegel

November 18, 2013

My father was an enthusiastic traffic engineer, Boy Scout, carpenter, ukulele and harmonica player. Vacationing in Brazil, he took pictures of traffic signs. A gregarious networker and tireless volunteer, he only went to shul on High Holidays, but my love of Judaism comes from the time we spent there together.

Clare Feinson

Steven Sotloff

c. September 2014

31, gifted, transcendent, committed journalist, US/Israeli citizen, grandson of Holocaust survivors, studied in Herzliyah. Secretly fasted Yom Kippur during captivity. Mother pled he "traveled to the Middle East to cover the suffering of Muslims at the hands of tyrants." Ironically, he was beheaded in the tit for tat retaliation patterns he wrote about.

Diane Perlman

Dora "Dorie" Weiner

September 18, 2013

In loving memory of Dorie Weiner, devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She lived and died courageously, holding fast to her family and friends and meeting all challenges with intelligence, humor, and resilience. Her memory is for a blessing -- we think of her and her example every day.

Debra Weiner

In Memory of . . .

Charles Roberson

January 26, 2014

Beloved wife Jane Kochman. Chuck helped make every day even the most ordinary fun and filled with joy and laughter. He is deeply missed by his friends and family.

Michael (Motl) Rosenbush

May 31, 2014

Michael (Motl) Rosenbush was a wonderful husband and a cherished friend. He is deeply missed by all who knew him. He was a devoted Yiddishist, born in Poland, and spent much of his life giving back to the community. He was one of the major contributors to the most recent Yiddish-English dictionary. Motl had a zest for life and inspired others.

Bonnie Kramer

Robert Rubinstein

May 17, 2014

Loving and beloved husband, adored and adoring father, caring grandfather, cherished uncle and brother. Son of Brooklyn. Long-time resident of Potomac and Gaithersburg. Faithful civil servant and community volunteer. I am grateful for his example of the power of attentive love. May his memory be a blessing.

Gwen Rubinstein

In Memory of . . .

Susan Fillin-Yeh

June 9, 2014

Susan could turn a bowl of pasta into a feast; a piece of driftwood into sculpture; pair an H+M blouse with a vintage skirt and you'd swear she was wearing Dior. She was a fierce defender of women's rights and women artists and had a contagious sense of delight.

Diane Tepfer

Estelle Fischer

April 23, 2014

Estelle was my father's mother. She was a dancer who gave the gift of strength to all who knew her. She will be deeply missed.

Hannah Fischer

Jerry Goldman

November 9, 2013

Uncle Jerry died in Phoenix at age 88. We remember his deep laugh, revealing love of life, family, and especially a good story. He served as a Navy paramedic in WWII, then moved on to careers as a small business owner: small hotels in Chicago, 31 Flavors in Phoenix, and in retirement retail sales at the Jewish store in Phoenix.

Debbie Goldman and Fran Goldman

In Memory of . . .

Ida F. Hyman

May 7, 2014

Strong, intelligent, and resilient. Loved reading, plays, and travel. Appreciated nature's beauty. Always had good friends. A long, loving marriage to my Dad. Delighted in her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Strong advocate for social justice. I'll miss my Mom's love, advice, friendship, and zest for life.

Toby Hyman

Jeanne Katz (Shandel)

June 16, 2014

Jeanne blended Eastern spirituality, Judaism, and loving kindness as a hospice worker and yoga teacher, and was a light to friends, family, and students throughout her 66 years. She had no fear of death because she believed g-d was waiting for her. I miss my friend of 45 years.

Susan Hoehstetter

Marilyn Dorothy Kweller

September 5, 2014

My mother Marilyn, AKA Bubbie, age 90. Glamorous, dynamic, accomplished, charitable, volunteer extraordinaire, pre-school teacher, excellent cook, gracious hostess, life of the party, fashion plate, sisterhood president. At 84 she danced and starred in grandson Ben's music video! She was blessed with three grandchildren and four great-grandsons.

Ronnie Jill Kweller

In Memory of . . .

Avraham Yitzhak Lis

September 19, 2014

Having courageously fought for Israeli independence, Avraham was justly honored in interment in Jerusalem as a Vatikay Hahaganah. Avraham and Shoshana, his devoted wife of 65 years, often joined Fabrangen for High Holidays. He is sorely missed by Shoshana, his beloved daughters, Ruth and Chani, his sons-in-law, and five grandchildren.

Ruth Lis and Mark Perlis

Ronna Martin

June 27, 2014

Ronna Martin was my closest cousin and dear friend. She was there with me when each of my parents died. I am devastated by her loss. I miss her warm smile, her laughter, her spirit, the memories we shared about growing up together, the family stories she knew that I didn't, her supportiveness, and her ability to live with the tough hand she was dealt.

Rozanne Weissman

Harold Ritzfield

April 14, 2014

My uncle Harold was a leading lay expert on cactus and a fine photographer. Despite a heart attack at 68, he persevered to 95. He had many younger friends and retained a sharp mind. He was married to my Aunt Miriam for 75 years.

Allen Hirsh