

CHILDREN'S SERVICES AND CHILDCARE

We are delighted to have your children celebrating the High Holidays with us. Fabringen offers Children's Services at 11am on the First Day of Rosh Hashanah and on Yom Kippur. We also have drop-in childcare on the First Day of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. We always have a room available for younger children to play under the supervision of their parents if they need a break at any time during services.

CHILDREN'S SERVICES – 11AM

Children's services are an opportunity to make the High Holidays more meaningful for the younger members of the community. The services are interactive and engaging. Fabringen has a children's Torah and prayer books. Services are led by community members. Parents are always welcome to participate.

11: Children's Services. Parents are invited. Services are designed for ages 5 and up but everyone is welcome

A FEW RULES:

1. Childcare is available without charge to those who have reserved a spot by contacting Ariel Rubin, Fabringen Coordinator, in advance. Children without a reservation will be welcomed if there is space. It is not too late to reserve a spot for Yom Kippur by e-mailing coordinator@fabringen.org.
2. Please sign your child into and out of the childcare. We do not allow children to walk alone back to services to look for their parents.
3. Please let us know on the sign-in sheet if your child has any special needs, including food allergies.
4. Fabringen will provide plenty of nut-free snacks but please feel free to drop off additional snacks or a packed lunch with your child.
